We refer to your letter of 22 March 2010 on the New Straits Times, Business Times article, entitled "Unisem looks to better performance this year" dated 22 March 2010.

The Company wishes to clarify the following:

The revenue target of RM1.5 billion, or a 44 percent growth, as mentioned in the article is predicated on past revenue of RM1.223 billion already achieved in 2008 and the revenue growth from our Chengdu operations as explained in the article. In the article Mr John Chia, the Group Managing Director has out-lined the expected areas of growth and the intended plans for the various plants of the Unisem Group.

The Company has no further comments on the article in query.

This announcement is dated 22 March 2010.
